

I am very happy with the NJ do not call law. This should be the model for the country. I still get calls from political parties and non-profit organizations but happily do not get any calls from other solicitors. I believe that this is one area where states must be permitted to enact the laws that the voters in that state have demanded.